The best time for me to check in would be late morning tomorrow or Thursday morning. I am unavailable all afternoon tomorrow in meetings. However, it would be beneficial to coordinate with Burt first thing tomorrow so I can continue work. Burt, are you available? I get in at 9:00.

Subject: Problem Formulation Check-in?

I have been tied up in meetings all day. Carrie briefed me on the status of the PF. While I do not want to get in the way of people working on the PF, we may need to regroup to figure out where we are, what needs to get done and whether there are any questions.

I cancelled the TCT meeting and I am assuming (though it is not confirmed) that I have a managers meeting with the LWG on Wednesday from 1 - 3. We could have a check in Wednesday afternoon - say 4:00 pm or Thursday morning (depending on Jennifer's schedule)..

Please let me know if you think this would be helpful and what time would work best.

Thanks, Eric
